FRIDAY, JULY 12. 1901.

The death of W. C. Wilder to. moves one of Hawaii's best citizats from our m dst. He was a reticent man but an earnest, honest and upright citiz-n, a man, whose political opinions we opposed, but for whom we always entertained the highest respect. To his surviving wife and his four sons goes out the sincere sym pathy of the community. William C. Wilder was a model husband. father and citizen and his memory will ever remain green among the people of Hawaii.

Hattie Parker,

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Samuel Parker which was received by the Sierra this morning cast a gloom over the society circles where the deceased was prominent and among the Hawaiiaus who lov-d Panana and always found her a trus friend. No particulars have been received, but it is understood that Mrs. Parker died after an operation. She was 46 years, and one of the most lovely and beautiful daughters of Hawaii nei. Her death comes as a terrible shock to the many who knew her and loved her. Her bereaved husband, poor genial Sam Parker expects to bring her remains to Hawaii by the Ventura for interment at the Mana cemetery where rest the children who have passed away before. Hittie Parker was the daughter of Napela, a prominent Maui chief who married Kitty Richardson, a sister of the late Judge John Richardson. She was educated at Oabu College where she met the man whose wife she became, and lived happily with him until the time of her death. The surviving children are Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. Carl Widemann. Sam Parker jr, Ernest Parker and James Parker. The name under which she was known by Hawaiians, "Panana," means a compass, and was given to her by Kamehameha V. as a compliment to her beauty, which steered all people. A lovely woman, a loving wife and mother has passed hence to the land of the unknown.

Day And Night Service.

The public will be very pleased to learn that the old system of day and night service will shortly be inaugurated again. Speaking to a reporter Mr. Kenake, who is acting postmaster, said:

"Three will be three men on the night force. Just how they will be divided off is a question yet to be will take the lone watch. This is done to handle any mail that comes in late, or after the day force is supposed to quit its work. It will be a good thing for the office. For instance, a steamer is going out at 9 a. m. The night force can make up the mail that comes in, and when the mail is ready to be closed every letter will have been prepared to go out. As it is, under such circumstances, we have to get some of the clerks out at an unearthly houof the morning to come down here a shallow pool of water.

to handle the overnight collection, and that bungles up the working hours of the day force. In this way they will make up mail both for the I-lands and for the Coast and keep everything right up to date, or, strictly speaking, right up to the hour.

"I have bad this plan in mind for the past six months and have been lucky enough to get authority from Washington for putting the new method in vogue.

"One can appreciate how much this new system will affect the la boring men For instance, a mail comes in from the Coast in the afternoon. At 6 o'clock the delivery window closes. The laboring man who finishes his work at Waikiki or some other far-away place at 5 o'clock catches his car, goes home, cleans up, has his dinner and then wants to get his mail. This he has not been able to do. If he wants his mail in the morning he has got to get out an hour or two earlier. Those who are employed down town can run over to the postoffice any time and get their mail. Another thing which will benefit laboring classes: On Saturday nights if one wants to get a money order and register his letter to be sent to the Mainland be can narrowly escaped drowning. do so. Under the present system he has little opportunity to do this t vo bours a day more to keeping but the advantage is slight to these

"When the night system is to be inaugurated, we will give the public ample notice."
